Re: Matter : Roselyn Johnson v. Catholic Charities Community Services, Archdiocese of New York, et al.
Docket No. : 2007 Civ. 6718 (RJH)
Our File No. : 333.0077

Dear Judge Holwell:

This firm represents the defendants in connection with the above-referenced matter. On August 7, 2008, we appeared before your honor for a conference to resolve a number of outstanding discovery issues in the case. At the conference, your honor ordered defendants to produce, by September 3, 2008, the contracts regarding the ESP program and the Welfare to Work program and the personnel records, with redactions of irrelevant or confidential material, of those individuals who were transferred from Pius to Catholic Charities. Because we received the personnel records today, we need additional time to review and redact all confidential information contained therein. Also, due to the fact that Pius XII no longer exists, we have encountered some unforeseen difficulty in locating the contracts. As such, we submit this letter, on consent of all parties, requesting that the time for defendants to produce the personnel records and contracts be extended to September 10, 2008.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Christopher Russo
